

Teacher's Guide to LDs

About This Guide

This guide, created for the classroom teachers who are crucial to improving the educational experiences of students with LDs, will introduce and/or reinforce an understanding of learning disabilities (LDs), give some tried and true strategies for use in the classroom, and share information about available resources and tools. Please feel free to share these pages, including photocopying or printing more, but please only do this for members of your own school. Copyright on these materials is held by LDAO. You can find the files at www.LDAO.ca/teachersguide.php.

About LDAO

The Learning Disabilities Association of Ontario (LDAO) is a charitable non-profit organization dedicated to improving the lives of children, youth and adults with learning disabilities.

This guide is provided for free to you thanks to sponsorship from corporate and charitable partners. Find out more about who contributes at www.LDAO.ca.

To help us fine-tune this guide, we would appreciate your feedback about it. Your positive and negative feedback about the look, the information, and the approach of this package will help us make it as useful as possible for teachers across the province.

Please submit your feedback using the form in this package, also located on our website at www.LDAO.ca/teachersguide.php. We thank you in advance, and we thank your School Board for allowing us this opportunity to work with you.
